JOSH MORGAN MAYOR

Dear Friends,

On behalf of London City Council, it is my pleasure to extend a warm welcome to London Symphonia's 2025–2026 Season. We are honored to have such a distinguished ensemble in our community, and we eagerly anticipate the musical experiences you will bring to our residents.

London Symphonia has long been a shining star in our city's artistic constellation, and your unwavering dedication to musical excellence continues to enrich the lives of residents across all ages. Each performance you deliver resonates deeply, creating treasured memories and nurturing a lasting love for the arts in our community.

As you enter your ninth season, we celebrate not only the enduring legacy of the Symphonia but also the exciting diversity of this year's program. From timeless classics to innovative contemporary works, the season promises something to captivate every listener. We are especially proud that many concerts will feature guest artists from London and the surrounding region - highlighting the incredible talent that thrives right here at home.

The beautiful Metropolitan United Church offers an inspiring setting where the power of live orchestral music can truly come alive, bringing people together to share in moments of joy, reflection, and unity. As we gather to enjoy this season's offerings, let us remember the unique ability of music to inspire, heal, and connect us all. Whether you are a longtime supporter or experiencing London Symphonia for the first time, I invite you to immerse yourself fully in the magic of this remarkable ensemble.

Thank you for your commitment to enriching our community through the power of music. Here's to a season filled with unforgettable performances and shared inspiration.

Kind regards,

Josh Morgan
Mayor, City of London

WELCOME to LOVE AND ROMANCE WITH DENISE PELLEY!

Happy Valentine's Day! We are thrilled to welcome local legend Denise Pelley who is making her London Symphonia debut and welcome back poet Roy Lewis in this concert filled with tender emotions that will go straight to your heart. Shaped by Composer- and Arranger-in-Residence Scott Good, who is also conducting, you know this evening will be a unique musical journey that will take you to many different places.

We hope you can join us on Sunday March 8 for our Family Concert, An Enchanting Afternoon: Peter and the Wolf, a delightful introduction to the instruments of the orchestra for children and people of all ages. With free tickets for children under the age of 12, and high school and post-secondary students, along with the discounts on adult tickets offered in our Family Flex Packs, we hope that all members of the family will be able to attend. In addition to the concert that starts at 3:30 p.m., there's a special craft for kids with London's Children's Museum from 2:30 p.m. to 3:20 p.m. Following the concert, we're inviting everyone to stay and enjoy the Instrument Petting Zoo presented by Long & McQuade's Fanshawe Park Road W. store. The afternoon will be packed with lots of fun for everyone.

If you haven't already, please explore our new Watch and Listen video on demand channel. You can subscribe or rent every concert in the 2025-26 Season plus access a treasure trove of outstanding concerts from the past three seasons along with companion materials. Click HERE to find out more.

To all our patrons and donors thank you for your friendship, encouragement and support. Your continued belief in our creativity and commitment to bringing the joy and transformative power of music to people of all ages across the community is vital to London Symphonia's success, not just in bringing performances like the one tonight to life but through our comprehensive education and outreach programs. On behalf of the musicians, staff, and Board of Directors, our heartfelt thanks for your support.

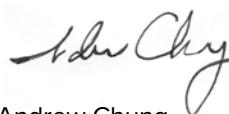

We hope you will enjoy tonight's concert and spread the word to family and friends.

Looking forward to seeing you often!

Sincerely,

April Voth

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

London Symphonia wishes to acknowledge and honour the land on which we are meeting as the traditional territory of the First Nations peoples: the Chippewa of the Thames First Nation (part of the Anishinaabe), the Oneida Nation of the Thames (part of the Haudenosaunee) and the Munsee-Delaware Nation (part of the Leni-Lunapee). Let us reflect on how we as individuals and as a community can carry this spirit of gratitude into everything we do to honour the work that all the First Nations peoples of the Turtle Island have done, and continue to do, for the land that supports us all.

Denise Pelley

DENISE PELLEY

Based in London Ontario, vocalist Denise Pelley has performed with many great artists including acclaimed trombonist Ray Anderson, gospel and blues legend Jackie Richardson and Flamenco guitarist Jesse Cook. In 2003, she opened for the late Aretha Franklin at the John Labatt Centre, now Canada Life Place. She has also performed with symphony orchestras in Canada, the US and Europe, and has been featured at jazz festivals in Ottawa, Toronto and Waterloo, and at London's Sunfest and Bluesfest.

She enjoys acting and has performed in Grand Theatre productions of Ain't Misbehavin', Wang Dang Doodle and A Streetcar Named Desire. Jazzabel, her one-woman show premiered in 2004 to sold out audiences at the Grand's McManus Theatre and in 2005, she performed the show in Washington DC at the National Museum for Women in the Arts, and again in 2006 in New York City at Urban Stages Theater. Denise was featured in an article in O (Oprah Winfrey) Magazine in February 2006. Her recording credits include seven CDs.

Over the years, Denise has won many awards. She was named London Music Awards' Best Jazz Artist of the Year six times and Jack Richardson Jazz Artist of the Year twice. In 2009 she was honoured with a Black Community Achievement Award, and in 2015 was inducted into the London Music Hall of Fame and was awarded a Conservatory Canada Honorary Licentiate in Music. In 2023, Denise received an honorary diploma from Fanshawe College.

Denise is a volunteer with Canadian Aid for Southern Sudan and has made 12 trips to Gordhim, South Sudan, where she helped deliver an arts and music camp to over 400 children. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Educate the Children which is building a school in Nigeria and of the Agape Foundation of London.

She was awarded the Queen's Golden and Diamond Jubilee Medals and was named a 2003 YM-YWCA Woman of Distinction in the Arts and Heritage category.

Denise held the positions of Executive Assistant and Community Relations Manager with Junior Achievement for 19 years before retiring. Previously she was employed at the London Free Press for 13 years. Denise is the co-founder of the Jason Edmonds Foundation for Road Rage, established after the death of her son Jason in 2000. The Foundation ran for five years during which time the co-founders delivered many presentations to youth about the dangers of road rage.

ROY LEWIS

Roy Lewis, is a poet, playwright, director and actor. He is a Founding Member of the Obsidian Theatre Company and a 16-season veteran of the Stratford Festival Company acting company. On stage he has played Morocco in The Merchant of Venice, Capulet in Romeo and Juliet, Cyclops in The Odyssey, Claudius in Hamlet, The Stage Manager in Our Town, Abel Magwitch in Great Expectations, Prospero in the Tempest, Mr. Potter in It's A Wonderful Life, Charley in Death of a Salesman and Camilo in The Winter's Tale. Roy has directed 10 plays. His plays Moments With You and I See the Crimson Wave: The Nat Love Story had their premieres at the Here For Now Theatre and Talk Is Free Theatre.

He has composed numerous orchestral works and orchestral arrangements since 2015 in his role as Composer-In-Residence with London Symphonia and previously as Composer-in-Residence with the Vancouver Symphony (2008-2011). His dynamic song cycle, Lasker-Schüler Songs for rising star soprano Midori Marsh and London Symphonia was premiered in 2024. Most recently his orchestral score for the 1926 silent film The Hands of Orlac was performed at the screening at the 2025 Forest City Film Festival. Upcoming projects for orchestra include two silent film scores: The Passion of Joan of Arc for a mixture of voices and period instruments to be premiered by Ensemble Caprice in Montreal in 2026, and a two-and-a-half hour score for large orchestra and chorus celebrating the 100th anniversary of Metropolis with the Kingston Symphony (2027).

SCOTT GOOD

Scott Good is a composer, conductor, concert designer and trombonist whose music is driven by the desire to create beauty, evoke emotion, and play with groove. With a belief in the power of art to enable cathartic events, he has worked with a rich community of musicians, orchestras, ensembles, choreographers, actors, and artists to create intense, meaningful live performance experiences. His music has been described as “a kind of majestic bestial reality” (Globe and Mail), “gloriously cacophonic” (Ottawa Citizen), “sumptuously orchestrated” (Montreal Gazette), and “dynamic, vivid” (Winnipeg Free Press).

He has been commissioned by orchestras across Canada, including Orchestre symphonique de Montréal, National Arts Centre Orchestra, Calgary Philharmonic, Winnipeg Symphony, Orchestre de la francophonie, and the Esprit Orchestra. Major works include his multimedia family concert The Caboose Who Got Loose with solo cello, narration, and projections (Calgary Philharmonic 2022), and his acclaimed trumpet concerto, Between the Rooms “a riotous, percussive bacchanal” (For the Record) with Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony in 2007 and London Symphonia in 2024.

Inspired by the themes of the universal human condition, his lush oratorio The Sleepers contemplates the unity and equality of all humanity, whereas Babbitt, a raucous saxophone concerto, hailed by The Vancouver

Observer as “luminous, virtuosic, gleaming music”, is inspired by a mid-life crisis. From global extinction cataclysm in his Kurt Vonnegut-inspired jazz orchestra work Galapagos, to a boiling stew in his overture What the Chickpea Said to the Cook, Scott finds inspiration to create compelling works from all walks and perspectives.

Good's role has evolved over time to include artistic direction. These inclusive programs focus on modern compositions and hybrid genre music. Belonging is a concert of Arabic songs and classical Western compositions with poet/activist Najwa Zebian and songwriter Maryem Toller; In Remembrance, combines classical music with contemporary and traditional songs to reflect the deep, conflicted emotions around the topic of war and sacrifice; and Tapestry, a collaboration with The Light of East Ensemble explores the music of the East Mediterranean. His aim with these diverse programs is to create bridges and connections revealing our common humanity through music.

Good has an extensive catalog of chamber music compositions and has created works for ensembles such as I Furiosi, and the Madawaska String Quartet, organizations such as InnerChamber and the World Harp Congress, and soloists including trombonist Alain Trudel, and electric guitarist Tim Brady. He has composed test pieces for the Montreal International Music Competition, the Canadian Music Competition, and written for education institutions such as the Glenn Gould School and NACO Young Artists program. He has composed several pieces for children as part of Chamber Factory's Listen Up! program and served as a mentor in Esprit Orchestra's Creative Sparks high school program. Current chamber projects include music direction and arranging for the Lonely Child Project, a contemporary music/contemporary circus hybrid theatrical work in collaboration with multi-hyphenate artist Stacie Dunlop and contemporary circus artists Angola Murdoch and Holly Treddenick, with the music of Claude Vivier (2017-present).

Scott Good's passion for jazz and improvised music can be heard throughout his compositions, especially in hybrid projects with jazz artists and musicians from a variety of cultural backgrounds. Highlights include two major works for the Hard Rubber Jazz Orchestra, Concerto for Cello composed for Jeffrey Zeigler, and Concerto for Improvisor featuring Scott as composer, conductor, and soloist, the concert length crossover project Conjunction, revered as “one of the most fascinating concerts I've heard this year” by the Ottawa Jazz Scene, with the Gryphon Trio, jazz bassist Roberto Occhipinti and American-Cuban drummer Dafnis Prieto, including arrangements and original composition Wu Xing (2018), and his 10-part tribute to author Kurt Vonnegut Vonnegut and the Slaughterhouse Orchestra co-written with singer-songwriter Dwight Schenk for rock band and chamber orchestra.

Scott lives in London Ontario with his wife Jennifer Schofield and two children.
